Working together

Teacher Responsibilities	Parent Responsibilities	Student Responsibilities
I will:	I will:	I will:
Do my part to help each student succeed in reaching their musical goals	Get my child to lessons on time	Arrive at my lesson with my books, assignment notebook, and other needed supplies
Provide a professional studio environment free from distractions and conducive to learning and music-making	Provide my child with a well-tuned piano and/or proper equipment for daily practice, including recordings.	Make sure that I practice all that is assigned and listen to corresponding recordings
Teach students how to practice effectively	Help my child find a daily practice time free from other commitments, noise and distractions.	Decide on a consistent daily practice time when I will be well-rested and free from distractions and other commitments
Arrange adequate performance opportunities for the student in the form of studio recitals, etc.	Support the teacher's practice strategies offered at the lesson	Thoughtfully practice my pieces using good technique and practice strategies as offered by my teacher
Teach students a well-rounded approach that includes music theory, ear training, proper technique, repertoire, functional skills	Encourage my child in their practicing in a positive way and praise their efforts and success	Complete any weekly assignments before my next lesson.
Teach the individual and adjust my teaching approach to the needs, strengths and weaknesses of each student	Sit down often and listen to my child play the piano or sing.	Listen attentively at lessons
Provide a positive atmosphere where learning will happen and beautiful music will be made	Provide my child with opportunities to be exposed to and listen to great music in the car, at home, on the radio, at live performances.	Arrive at my lesson with a good attitude and ready to learn and make music.
